HE REPEATS AND REVIEWS HIS LIBELS.

The Story of the Trouble With the Government—Official Correspondence in re Blount.

HONOLULU, May 23, via SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., May 31, 1893.—Yesterday a member of the Department of Police came to me—to my surprise, for I hadn't asked for guardianship—to say that two policemen would be stationed before the cottage I occupied, and that if they should telephone to headquarters a larger force would come. So I am living here under the rule of a set of people who call themselves "missionary children" and having to be guarded against the violence of white men—gentlemen of the Annexation Club.

It seems that Minister Blount wrote on Sunday a short note to Mr. Dole—head of the Provisional Government—stating that Admiral Skerrett had been told by Dr. J. S. McGrew, a prominent Annexationist, that Mr. Nordhoff was to be attacked and warning him to prevent it. To this, Mr. Dole to-day—Tuesday—made official reply, expressing his regrets that threats should have been made and saying that measures had been taken to prevent an outrage, so that I suppose the Annexation Club has been told to leave me untouched.

THREATENED WITH SUIT FOR LIBEL. Yesterday afternoon I received the following note from the Attorney-General:

DEPARTMENT OF THE ATTORNEY-GENERAL, HONOLULU, May 22, 1893.
To Mr. Charles Nordhoff—Sir: The enclosed statement which you have caused to be published in the New York Herald, and which has been republished in the Honolulu Bulletin, is known by this Government to be false, and is regarded as malicious and libelous. Unless you retract the same at once and give retraction equal publicity with the libel, proceedings will be instituted against you. I have the honor to be, sir, your obedient servant,
WILLIAM O. SMITH, Attorney-General.

Now the statement enclosed is absolutely true, but I wrote the Attorney-General a civil letter saying that I would see if my informant had been misunderstood by me, which I now know is not the case, and that if this was so I would, of course, make a correction, but saying at the same time that I didn't hold myself responsible for what appeared in Honolulu papers.

A LETTER AND A SUMMONS. To this I presently received the following peremptory and ridiculous reply:

DEPARTMENT OF THE ATTORNEY-GENERAL, HONOLULU, May 22, 1893.
To Mr. Charles Nordhoff—Sir: No man is justified in repeating by publication false, malicious, defamatory, libelous and seditious sayings by saying that some one told him so. I have the honor to inform you that the letter and spirit of my communication of this date will be adhered to unless ample retraction is made. Awaiting your early reply I have the honor to remain yours respectfully,
WILLIAM O. SMITH, Attorney-General.

About the same time I received a summons to appear before the Provisional Assembly as follows:

In the name of the Provisional Government of the Hawaiian Islands, to the Marshall of the Hawaiian Islands, or his deputy on the Island Oahu, greeting:

WHEREAS by a resolution of the Executive and Advisory Councils adopted on the twenty-second day of May, 1893, a copy of which is as follows:—

"WHEREAS the following statement among others has been published in the daily Bulletin in a letter purporting to have been written by Mr. Charles Nordhoff (here followed an extract) and

"WHEREAS said statement, so far as it applies to the Provisional Assembly, is wholly false;
Resolved, That said Charles Nordhoff be cited to appear before this Assembly on Tuesday, the twenty-third day of May, at eleven o'clock A. M., to show upon what authority he based his said assertion."

Now, therefore, you are commanded to cite Charles Nordhoff, if he can be found within your jurisdiction, to appear before the Executive and Advisory Councils of the Provisional Government, at the Council Chamber in Honolulu, on Tuesday, the twenty-third day of May, 1893, at eleven o'clock, and to answer to such complaint as has been made against him. Witness the hand, etc.,

SANFORD B. DOLE, President of the Executive and Advisory Councils of the Provisional Government.

At Honolulu, this twenty-second day of May, 1893.
CHARLES T. RODGERS, Secretary Executive and Advisory Councils.

MINISTER BLOUNT'S ACTION.

All these papers I sent to Minister Blount, who soon after sent for me and directed me positively to pay no attention whatever to any of them. He said that I was an American citizen, writing for an American paper, and could not and should not be questioned or threatened by any one here for what I had written. He ordered me, therefore, not to obey the summons or even to see or write to the Attorney-General, and this morning he drove up to ask me to come to the legation and remain there until all danger of an attempt to interfere with me by arrest was past. I did this, of course, and returned to my cottage, with the Minister's permission, at half-past two this afternoon.

[Mr. Nordhoff goes on to make extracts from the Honolulu press which may be omitted here.]

The Advertiser is the old and present organ of the "missionary children," as well as one of the organs of the Provisional Government. The other organ, the STAR, goes further than any other.

OPPOSED TO FREE SPEECH.

While the organs are thus free to vilify, there is a disposition to crush out the independence of the anti-Annexation press. A sedition law is under consideration of the Government, and about two weeks ago Mr. Kenyon, the editor of the Holomua, a native paper, was arrested for criticizing Mr. Stevens, the late Minister here. At the same time, Mr. Bush, the editor of the Kaleo,

M. McINERNY.

Are we to be, or not to be, a part of the Great Republic, seems to be the burning question of the day, and one we had rather leave to wiser heads than ours to solve; and while great statesmen are wrestling with this momentous question, we want to have a little "pow-wow" with you on some other subjects, that concern you as well as ourselves.

Has it not occurred to you that you've been wearing that old hat long enough! In these progressive times if you intend to be "in it," you've got to keep pace with fashion. No matter how otherwise well dressed you may be, unless your hat is the correct thing you bear a shabby appearance.

We have already laid in a stock of the Latest Hats of the coming Spring and Summer styles, in hard felts, soft felts and straws, and including a line of the celebrated "Fedora" Hats, at present all the rage in the United States. There is therefore, no necessity for you to hang on any longer to that old Tile that bears such a strong resemblance to the hat "your father wore."

Believing that business will be better in the near future, we have not hesitated to keep our stock full in all lines. Take collars for instance: We have almost everything you could wish for. If you wear a standing collar, just come in and take a look at our "Narenta" or "Ardonia," or if you prefer a turn down collar, try the "Winnipeg" or "Goswell;" we have have lots of others, and can't fail to suit you. Cuffs in abundance, links or otherwise.

Neckwear in profusion, scarfs, windsors, 4-in-hands, and a special lot of "Boys' Bows;" suspenders in great variety, leather and woven ends, good strong, serviceable goods.

We might go on indefinitely, but space is valuable, and to enumerate everything we carry would fill a pretty fair sized book. If there is anything you want in the men's line, just drop in and see us, and if we can't suit you, we don't believe any one can.

If you should want a pair of nice shoes, let us try a hand at fitting you. Did it ever occur to you

How much a man is like his shoes; For instance, both a soul may lose. Both have been tanned; Both are made tight by Cobblers; Both get left and right; Both need a mate to be complete; And both are made to go on feet.

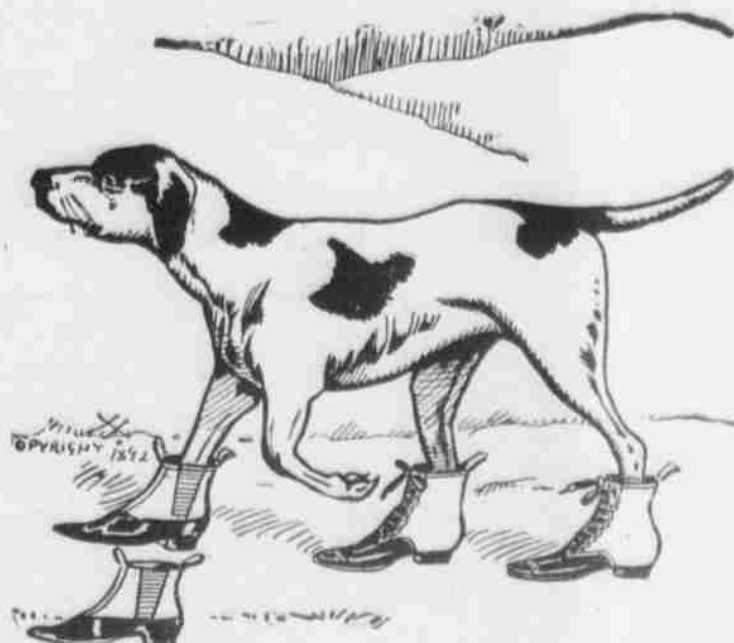

They both need healing; oft are sold, And both in time will turn to mould. With shoes the last is first; with men The first shall be the last; and when The shoes wear out, they're mended new; When men wear out, they're men dead too.

They both are trod upon, and both Will tread on others nothing loth. Both have their ties, and both incline When polished, in the world to shine; And both peg out. Now would you choose

To be a man, or be his shoes.

POINTERS IN SHOES

Just three pointers will be enough for you:
1st—We have over 20,000 pairs of Shoes in stock to select from, embracing all leading lines.
2nd—We buy in larger quantities than any one in the country, only spot cash, consequently we buy cheaper.
3rd—We have no extraordinary inducements to offer; you would distrust a man who had gold dollars to sell for ninety cents. Look out for the shoe man with that kind of a story; his shoes may be Counterfeits.
